HELP VETERANS, BUILDYOUR TEAM

Launch your team into amaximum efficiency by experiencing the reflection of the herd, while giving the gift of healing to a veteran.

Participating in Team Building with HOOVES will lead to increased Unity, Trust and Teamwork among co-workers. The fun challenges will help teams bond and strengthen their relationships.

Equine Reflection Work: Uncover unconscious bias, identify barriers to success, and improve communication within your team.

Pen Crafting: Each team member will craft their own hand made wooden or acrylic pen to take with them as a keepsake. Pen crafting helps people become focused and present, while building confidence.

Rage Painting: Relieve stress and create beautiful wall art. This cathartic experience metaphorically transforms chaos into beauty.

Axe Throwing: Team up for some rivalry and friendly competition while putting to use strategy and focus skills.

Benefits of Participation:

- Increased Morale & Team Spirit
- Lower Workplace Stress
- Increased Employee Engagement
- Increased Prodactivity

Why Horses?

As non-predatory herd animals, horses have the innate ability to read our non-verbal cues at a magnified level. While this is a form of survival in their natural habitat, it becomes a vital tool for teams, acting as a non-bias feedback mechanism. Simply put, horses will mirror your team and reflect back to you your exact shortfalls, saving invaluable time and energy in creating a stronger organization.
